5 to establish such relationships with the Government of the 6 United States as are freely agreed upon, the Congress takes 7 note of joint resolution numbered 1 of the Legislative Assem-

10 and the people of Puerto Rico in the light of the principles
11 expressed by the Legislative Assembly of Puerto Rico in said
12 joint resolution numbered 1, namely: (a) "the recognition
13 and reassertion of the sovereignty of the people of Puerto 14 Rico"; (b) "the permanence and irrevocability of the union
15 between the United States and Puerto Rico on the basis of 18 such other conditions as may be considered, in the compact,

19 of mutual benefit to the United States and Puerto Rico";

2 which the people of Puerto Rico will contribute, in a manner
3 compatible with the stability and economic growth of Puerto
4 Rico, to the general expenses of the United States Govern-
5 ment.

6 The Commission shall render its report to the President
7 and the Congress and to the Governor and the Legislative 8 Assembly of Puerto Rico.

9 SEC. 3. (a) Any member of the Commission who is not

20 for submission to the people, as alternatives to ratification 21 of the compact, of proposals to apply for statehood and for
